The Best Western Aurora Inn Receives Director's Award for Quality

Kingston, Nova Scotia- 23 February 2005—The Best Western Aurora Inn in Kingston has received the Best Western Director's Award for outstanding quality standards. The Director's Award recognizes Best western International hotels with a cleanliness and maintenance inspection score of 950 points or more out of a possible 1000. Hotels must also meet Best Western's requirements for design and high customer service scores to qualify for the distinction.

“ The Director's Award is an important symbol of success,” says owner/operator Maureen Banyard. “ This award confirms the Best Western Aurora Inn's commitment to providing quality accommodations for our guests. Our housekeeping and maintenance departments have worked hard to achieve this level of excellence.”

Located at 831 Main Street, the Best Western Aurora Inn features 23 guest rooms with a fully licensed dining room on premises. Each guest room offers free high speed internet access, iron & ironing boards, hair dryers, in-room coffee & tea, extended cable television, free local calls, complimentary newspapers and non-smoking rooms.

For reservations at the Best Western Aurora Inn, call 902-765-3306 or call Best Western's 24-hour, toll-free reservations number (800) 528-1234. Reservations are also available from Best Western International's website at www.bestwestern.com.
